OFFICIAL NOTICE

Given Bryan and Stevenson of Their Candidacy.

IMMENSE THRONG PRESENT

Duckworth Club of Cincinnati Given a Place of Honor.

CANDIDATES GIVEN AN OVATION.

Imperialism Discussed as the Paramount Issue by Both Bryan and Stevenson in Accepting the Honor Conferred on Them by Democratic Party.

Indianapolis, Aug. 8.—Visitors and residents alike awaited somewhat impatiently the beginning of the ceremonies which were to witness the formal notifications of Messrs Bryan and Stevenson at Military park.

The procession which was to start at 1:15 p. m. was somewhat late in getting off, but when once in motion, it moved along with somewhat more than the usual celerity. The parade was directed by Hon. Charles A. Garfield as the chief marshal.

In the line of march were many local political organizations and a number of clubs from the surrounding country, but the places of honor were given to the Chicago Democracy, to the Duckworth club of Cincinnati and to the Jackson club of Terre Haute.

Thousands of people witnessed the ceremonies which began shortly after 2:30 p. m. Senator James K. Jones, chairman of the Democratic national committee was introduced by Mayor Taggart as presiding officer of the occasion. Senator Jones in a brief speech introduced Congressman James C. Richardson of Tennessee. Congressman Richardson was received with wild cheers as he mounted the stand to officially notify Mr. Bryan of his nomination for president by the Democratic convention at Kansas City.

When Mr. Bryan arose to reply a demonstration ensued such as had never been equalled in this city. When order was finally restored Mr. Bryan began his address which was of considerable length. Cheer upon cheer greeted him at every telling point. He spoke in part as follows:

Mr. Chairman and Members of the Notification Committee: I shall, at an early day, and in a more formal manner, accept the nomination which you tender, and I shall at that time discuss the various questions covered by the Democratic platform. It may not be out of place, however, to submit a few observations at this time upon the general character of the contest before us, and upon the question which is declared to be of paramount importance in this campaign. When I say that the contest of 1900 is a contest between Democracy on the one hand and plutocracy on the other I do not mean to say that all our opponents have deliberately chosen to give to organized wealth a predominating influence in the affairs of the government, but I do assert that on the important issues of the day the Republican party is dominated by those influences which constantly tend to elevate pecuniary considerations and ignore human rights.

Against us are arrayed a comparatively small, but politically and financially powerful number who really profit by Republican policies, but with them are associated a large number who, because of their attachment to their party name, are giving their support to doctrines antagonistic to the former teachings of their own party.

Republicans who used to advocate bi-metallicism, now try to convince themselves that the gold standard is good; Republicans who were formally attached to the greenback are now seeking an excuse for giving national banks control of the nation's paper money; Republicans who used to boast that the Republican party was paying off the national debt, are now looking for reasons to support a perpetual and increasing debt; Republicans who formerly abhorred a trust, now beguile themselves with the delusion that there are good trusts and bad trusts, while in their minds the line between the two is becoming more and more obscure; Republicans who in times past congratulated the country upon the small expense of our standing army are now making light of the objections which are urged against a large increase in the permanent military establishment; Republicans who gloried in our independence when the nation was less powerful now look with favor upon a foreign alliance; Republicans who three years ago condemned "fearful annexation" as immoral and even criminal, are now sure that it is both immoral and criminal to oppose forcible annexation.

Those who would have this nation enter upon a career of empire must consider not only the effect of imperialism on the Filipinos, but they must also calculate its effect upon our own nation. We cannot repudiate the principle of self-government in the Philippines without weakening that principle here. Even now we are beginning to see the paralyzing influence of imperialism. Heretofore, this nation has been prompt to express its sympathy with those who were fighting for civil liberty. But now when a war is in progress in South Africa which must result in the extinction of the monarchical idea or in the triumph of a republic, the advocates of imperialism in this country dare not say a word in behalf of the Boers. * * * The forcible annexation of territory to be governed by arbitrary power, differs as much from the acquisition of territory to be built up into states as a monarchy differs from a democracy. The Democratic party does not oppose expansion, when expansion enlarges the area of the republic and incorporates land which can be settled by American citizens, or adds to our population people who are willing to become citizens and are capable of discharging their duties as such.

Referring to the Philippine plank of the Republican platform assuming that this government will retain the islands, Mr. Bryan asked if the Filipino is to be a citizen or a subject? Then he discussed the Porto Rican question and declared the tariff against Porto Rico to be repugnant to the letter and spirit of our organic law. He next touched upon our title to the Philippines along the lines of previous speeches. He said, "Force can defend a right but force never yet created a right," and maintained that the Filipinos should be treated the same as was promised the Cubans. The remainder of the speech was devoted to answering in his usual manner the four arguments in defense of imperialism, namely:

First: That we must improve the present opportunity to become a world power and enter into international politics.

Second: That our commercial interests in the Philippine islands and in the Orient make it necessary for us to hold the islands permanently.

Third: That the spread of the Christian religion will be facilitated by a colonial policy.

Fourth: That there is no honorable retreat from the position which the nation has taken.

His answer to these arguments, condensed into the fewest possible words, was that the first is addressed to the nation's pride and the second to the nation's pocketbook. The third is intended for the church member and the fourth for the partisan.

A war of conquest was denounced as unwise and unrighteous. It is not necessary to own people in order to trade with them. Imperialism would be profitable to the army contractors, shipowners who would carry live soldiers away and dead soldiers back, to the franchise grabbers and officials whose salaries would be fixed here and paid there; but to the farmer and laboring man and those engaged in other occupations it would bring expenditure without return and risk without reward.

In conclusion Mr. Bryan said: I can conceive of a national destiny surpassing the glories of the present and the past—a destiny which meets the responsibilities of today and measures up the possibilities of the future. Behold a republic, resting securely upon the foundation stones quarried by revolutionary patriots from the mountain of eternal truth—a republic applying in practice and proclaiming to the world the self-evident proposition—that all men are created equal; that they are endowed with inalienable rights; that governments are instituted among men to secure these rights; that governments derive their just powers from the consent of the governed. Behold a republic in which civil and religious liberty stimulate all to earnest endeavor, and in which the law restrains every hand uplifted for a neighbor's injury—a republic in which every citizen is a sovereign but in which no one cares to wear a crown. Behold a republic standing erect while empires all around are bowed beneath the weight of their own armaments—a republic whose flag is loved while other flags are only feared. Behold a republic increasing in population, in wealth, in strength and in affluence, solving the problems of civilization and hastening the coming of an universal brotherhood—a republic which shakes thrones and dissolves aristocracies by its silent example and gives light, and inspiration to those who sit in darkness. Behold a republic gradually but surely becoming the supreme moral factor in the world's progress and the accepted arbiter of the world's disputes—a republic whose history, like the path of the just, "is as the shining light that shineth more and more into the perfect day."

STEVENSON NOTIFIED.

Adlai E. Stevenson, the Democratic candidate for vice president, was formally notified of his nomination in a brief congratulatory speech by Governor Thomas of Colorado. Mr. Stevenson replied at length. The salient points of his speech follow:

I am profoundly grateful for the honor conferred upon me by my selection by the National Democratic convention, as its candidate for the high office of vice president of the United States. For the compliment manner in which such action has been officially made known to me, I express to you, Mr. Chairman, and to your honored associates of the committee, my sincere thanks.

Deeply impressed with a sense of the responsibility assumed by such candidacy, I accept the nomination so generously tendered me. Should the action of the convention meet the approval of the people in November, it will be my earnest endeavor to discharge with fidelity the duties of the great office.

Clearly and unequivocally, the Democratic convention has expressed its sympathy with the Burghers of the South African republics in their heroic attempt to maintain free government. In this, the convention, not only voiced the sentiments of American Democrats, but of liberty-loving men everywhere.

Only those who believe that our own country has outgrown the doctrines of the fathers, are in sympathy with England's attempt to establish monarchy upon the ruins of republics.

In apt words the Dingley tariff law is condemned. It is tersely characterized as legislation skillfully devised in the interest of a class, and to impose upon the many burdens which they should not bear.

Mr. Stevenson briefly touched upon the various planks in the Democratic platform and devoted most of his time to the issue of imperialism, which he said is the supreme question to which all others are secondary. He said the Democratic party has ever been an advocate of wise territorial expansion, but the aggressive expansion of the present administration was declared to be without precedent. The Porto Rican tariff was denounced and the administration's Philippine policy was condemned.

As a necessary corollary to imperialism will come the immense standing army. The dead hand of militarism will be felt in the new world, as it is in the old. The strong arm of power will be substituted for the peaceable agencies which for more than a century have made our people contented and happy.

We are told that our republic is now to become a "world power." In the highest sense—with the declaration of independence as its cornerstone—it has been, in all its past a world power. It has been the lofty ideal to all liberty-loving people; the model for all builders of republics for more than a century. In the sense used by imperialists the expression is one of terrible significance. It necessitates the methods and equipments of monarchies. It means the creation and maintenance by our republic of standing armies equal to those of the world powers of Europe. At no less cost can we hold place as a world power. Study existing conditions in European nations, and know what all this means to us. It means taxation to the verge of despair. It means, as has been truly said, "that every laborer must carry an armed soldier upon his back as he goes to his daily toil." All history teaches that the cornerstone of imperialism is the force of the standing army.

In the great struggle now upon us, we invoke the co-operation of all who revere the memory of our fathers, and to whom the declaration of independence is the enduring chart of our liberties. Upon the supreme issue now in the forefront—and to the end that Republican government be perpetuated—we appeal to the sober judgment and patriotism of the American people.

TOWNE STEPS DOWN.

Retires From the Vice Presidential Race in Favor of Stevenson.

Duluth, Minn., Aug. 8.—Charles A. Towne, the Populist candidate for vice president, has sent the Populist committee on notification a letter declining the nomination. He gives way in favor of Adlai Stevenson, the Democratic candidate, and says: "I shall, of course, advocate the election of Bryan and Stevenson."

In his letter he reviewed the history of the Populist convention at Sioux Falls, saying it was the expectation that his nomination would be ratified at Kansas City. He remarks that either Roosevelt or Stevenson will be the next vice president and in this connection says: "In what light should I appear before the American people if, while advocating the election of one ticket, I should be going through the form of running on another? Nobody in the United States would think I had the slightest chance of being elected and nobody would believe that I considered myself seriously as a candidate unless at the same time he believed me to be absolutely lacking in common sense."

Mr. Towne says in conclusion: "The platform adopted at Kansas City not only re-enacts the principles of 1896 but, in language whose force, dignity and beauty have never been equalled in a similar document, responds to the new issues presented—in the growth of the trust monopoly and the imperialistic policy of the administration, by an appropriate enunciation of those sublime doctrines of human rights and liberties, whose profession and observance have been the peculiar glory of our country and are the sure basis of the ultimate happiness of mankind. And again the duty of carrying the banner of the cause has been committed to that tried and trusted hand whose grasp has never weakened, which no fear can make to falter and no burden can dismay. The leadership of Bryan which could have redeemed a bad platform, sanctifies a good one. It made memorable an unsuccessful contest. It will crown a victory with imperishable splendor."

APPROVED BY BRYAN.

Indianapolis, Aug. 8.—When asked for an expression upon the withdrawal of Mr. Towne, Mr. Bryan replied: "Mr. Towne's letter is manly and patriotic, but it is nothing less than was expected by those who know him best."

PARLIAMENT ADJOURNED.

Queen Justifies African War and Threatens Punishment for China.

London, Aug. 8.—Parliament adjourned Wednesday after the approbation bill had been passed by both houses.

The queen's speech at the proroguing of parliament after stating that the relations with the powers of Europe and America continue friendly and a reference to the establishment of a commonwealth of Australia, refers to the war in South Africa "which has placed in the strongest light the heroism and high military qualities of the troops brought together under my banner from this country, from Canada, Australia and my South African possessions. Believing the continued importance of the republics to be a constant danger to the peace of South Africa, I have authorized the annexation of the Free State as a first step to the union of the races under an institution which may in time be developed so as to secure equal rights and privileges in South Africa.

Referring to China, the speech said: "The British and other legations at Peking have been unexpectedly attacked by an insurgent mob and it is feared many of their inmates were mured. How far the Chinese authorities are accomplices in this atrocious crime and whether the British minister and his family are among the victims, are matters still of some uncertainty. The utmost efforts will be made by myself and my allies to visit it with worthy punishment the authors of this unexampled crime."

As a necessary corollary to imperialism will come the immense standing army. The dead hand of militarism will be felt in the new world, as it is in the old. The strong arm of power will be substituted for the peaceable agencies which for more than a century have made our people contented and happy.

We are told that our republic is now to become a "world power." In the highest sense—with the declaration of independence as its cornerstone—it has been, in all its past a world power.

It is stated that President McKinley will not return to Washington until next week, when he will be accompanied by Mrs. McKinley. As to the possibility of an extra session of congress it was said by a prominent official that such a session was improbable. The situation is one of rescue, and were congress in session it could not get additional troops to China in time to participate in the entrance of Peking.

AMERICANS GOT THE PLUM.

London, Aug. 8.—The allotment of £5,000,000 of the £10,000,000 war loan to the United States was received in the higher financial world as a good thing for London in the present position of the English banks. Bankers and small investors severely criticize Sir Michael Hicks-Beach for privately arranging for half of the so-called public loan and allowing the investment "plum" to go out of the country. The Bank of England advised Sir Michael to accept the American offer which was made early last week through J. P. Morgan & Co. and the Barings, the joint takers, pointing out that this was an easy and natural way to bring in gold and save the exports to the United States in October. Otherwise the bank rate might have to be raised to five or six per cent and extraordinary measures would have to be taken to increase the gold reserve.

AMBASSADOR CHOATE.

To Arbitrate British Claim Against China for Loss of a Ship.

London, Aug. 8.—United States Ambassador Choate has been appointed arbitrator between the British and Chinese governments in the case of the sinking of the British boat Kow Shing during the China-Japanese war.

The Kow Shing, Captain Galesworthy, while conveying Chinese troops was attacked by Japanese warships and sunk off Asan, July 25, 1894. Captain Galesworthy escaped to the Japans, but many were killed.

WISCONSIN REPUBLICANS.

Milwaukee, Aug. 8.—The Republican state convention to nominate a complete state ticket met at the exposition building at noon with 1,067 delegates present. A large portrait of President McKinley graced the rostrum. H. C. Adams, of Madison, as temporary chairman, spoke about an hour, eulogizing the national and state administrations and dwelling at length upon local affairs. At the conclusion of Mr. Adams' speech the committees were named and a recess was taken until late in the afternoon. The program of the convention calls for the nomination of the present state ticket with the exception of Governor Scofield. Former Congressman Robert M. La Follette will head the ticket.

THOMPSON SUCCEEDS SMYTHE.

Washington, Aug. 8.—The president appointed Daniel A. Tompkins of North Carolina a member of the industrial commission to succeed Ellison A. Smythe, resigned. Mr. Tompkins is largely identified with the cotton interests of the south and is one of the principal owners of the Charlotte Observer.

NO EXTRA SESSION.

Congress Could Not Hasten the Relief of Peking.

SITUATION ONE OF RESCUE.

Governement Awaiting Intelligence From Consul General Goodnow.

FEARED MINISTERS ARE IN PERIL.

Grave Doubt Exists as to Whether International Forces Can Reach Peking in Time to Save the Ministers—Conger Advised of Approach of Relief Column.

Washington, Aug. 8.—While there is talk of the probable action of the United States government in the Chinese matter and some discussion of the possibility of an extra session of congress to deal with the whole situation, it is very likely that nothing will be done until additional information is received from China. The tenor of the message sent to Consul General Goodnow and which he is expected to communicate to the Chinese authorities was such as to necessitate an answer at once. The authorities are awaiting that reply.

It is stated that President McKinley will not return to Washington until next week, when he will be accompanied by Mrs. McKinley. As to the possibility of an extra session of congress it was said by a prominent official that such a session was improbable. The situation is one of rescue, and were congress in session it could not get additional troops to China in time to participate in the entrance of Peking.

As a result of the conferences between the president, Acting Secretary of State Ade, Secretary Root and General Corbin, a cablegram was sent to Consul General Goodnow, including a copy of the dispatch from Minister Conger and advising him of the situation as it is understood here. He was directed to communicate this to Earl Li Hung Chang, to Sheng and to such viceroys as can transmit to whatever government there is in the Chinese empire. This cable contained what is said to be a very emphatic statement of the position of this government and saying that action is immediately necessary. While it is not strictly speaking an ultimatum, it very close to it.

The government officials here regard the situation as very dangerous to Minister Conger and other foreigners in Peking and grave doubt is expressed whether the international force can reach Peking in time to rescue the ministers.

Be of Good Cheer.

A message has been sent to Minister Conger by the state department advising him of the approach of the relief column and exhorting him to be of good cheer. The dispatch was sent direct to Minister Conger at Peking and a duplicate of it to Consul General Goodnow at Shanghai. Mr. Goodnow was directed to spare no pains or expense to get the message to Mr. Conger.

An answer is expected during the day or evening and it probably will determine the future action of this government.

It is not believed by the war department officials that the international forces now operating along the Pei river can reach Peking in time to rescue the ministers if active hostilities should begin against the legations by the imperial troops. So serious do the officials regard the situation that it is believed by some that there is greater safety for the ministers and other foreigners to accept an escort of the imperial army to Tien Tsin, than to remain in Peking if war should be declared.</p

THE FAIR.

It has been suggested that our merchants and other business men close their stores and other business houses Friday and Saturday afternoon—or at least Saturday afternoon—and give everybody a chance to attend the fair. The fair is conducted in the interest of our city, and Maysville should encourage it.

WHEN the Republicans failed to nominate Taylor for Governor they put their own seal of condemnation upon him.

THE nomination for Governor at the hands of his party would have been more of a vindication for Taylor than all the endorsements in the world.

"MAYSVILLE is soon to have a new $60,000 plug tobacco factory," says the Bourbon News. Mistake, Brother Champ. But there is no reason why Maysville shouldn't have even a larger tobacco factory than that. Certainly no city is better located for such an enterprise, and with about $1,300,000 on deposit in four banks it looks like there is abundant capital for many such factories. At Mayfield where the factory mentioned is to be located, the $60,000 were subscribed in an hour.

SMALL CRUMB OF COMFORT.
Mr. C. E. Dodson, Chairman of the Second District Democratic Congressional Committee of Kansas, is much amused over the report that a McKinley and Roosevelt Democratic Club has been started in his district at Argentine, a town of 4,500. Mr. Dodson, who knows every voter in the hamlet, says: "Of the three members who compose this club one was once a Democrat, but he voted for Palmer and Buckner in 1896. The other two had voted mixed tickets and were never known as Democrats. This year they are dissatisfied with the local ticket on account of some personal grievance, so they got together with the other man and started a club."

Mr. Dodson's mirth was excited by a lengthy editorial in a Republican organ of Chicago, which pointed to the formation of this organization as an evidence of great gains for McKinley and Roosevelt.

MONNETT ON ROOSEVELT.
Ex-Attorney General Frank S. Monnett of Ohio, who led the fight in that State against the Standard Oil Company and who was retired from politics by Mark Hanna for so doing, says:

"One is surprised at the cold indifference on the part of the ignorant, pilfered victims of the trust, who are only too willing to look at the balloon while the trust robbers reach their hands into their pockets and enter their homes and rob them of their resources.

"Our Republican leaders are banking on the spectacular, and already see in their minds miles of Rough Riders, on horseback, with slouch hats, following bands paid for by Standard Oil money and listening to United States Senators with Standard Oil feet and steel trust fees in their pockets, telling the poor deluded devils how thankful they ought to be that the meager recompense they have received for their day's wages allowed to them at all, and that the times are not as they used to be under Democratic rule.

"One dollar and a quarter, with necessities from 50 to 400 per cent, higher than normal competition would make them, is the prosperity that is much better than they formerly had."

"One glance at Teddy's hat and a whoop and a snort from a rural postmaster and our leaders think they will accomplish more than all logical arguments and anti-trust speeches."

A SAFE LEADER.

Gov. Beckham's Official Department Has Won the Esteem and Confidence of the People.

[Burlington Recorder.]

The young Governor's official department during the trying times of last winter and spring had gained for him the admiration and confidence of his party, and when the time came to choose a standard bearer in the State he was looked to as the safest person to whom to intrust the grave responsibility.

[Shelbyville Sentinel.]

Clean, able and in every way a thoroughbred, he represents all that is commendable in young American manhood, and his nomination will grow in favor as the campaign progresses. His election is an absolute certainty.

[Russellville Herald-Ledger.]

Mr. Beckham has shown himself to be thoroughly competent to fill the office of Governor of Kentucky. He stands squarely on the platform—is in harmony with the whole of it—and he deserves and will receive the support of every loyal citizen of the State.

[Cynthiana Times.]

Beckham will grow on the people as they know him better. If the Democrats of Kentucky do their duty and act wisely for the best interests of the Commonwealth and party, J. C. W. Beckham will redeem Kentucky's reputation and will rehabilitate Democracy in this State.

[Leitchfield Gazette.]

The nomination of Governor Beckham is entirely satisfactory to Democrats of all shades of opinion.

[Murray Ledger.]

Conditions developed at the Lexington convention which proved to us beyond a question of a doubt that J. C. W. Beckham was the man to lead the Democratic hosts to a sweeping victory.

[Stanford Democrat.]

If not a genius to see the right thing to do quickly, he has shown himself a genius in taking good advice. He won the nomination over a field of very competent and able men. He is clean, able, wise and discreet, and a good man for Governor.

[Hickman Courier.]

Governor Beckham easily won the nomination for Governor at the Lexington convention. His reputation is that of a pure, high-minded young man of splendid ancestry, and he has proved himself a man of courage.

ELDER FITE, of Washington, is assisting Elder Newlin in a meeting at Tollesboro.

MR. J. D. KEHOE, Maysville, has been promoted through the operation of civil service from proofreader in the Government printing office, at Washington City, to a clerkship at $1,600 on special work in the Treasury Department.

ELDER ROBT. G. FRANK, of Fulton, Mo., is assisting the minister, H. O. Frank, in a series of meetings at the Corinth Christian Church, Montgomery County. The former has accepted a call to Philadelphia, and will begin his work there Oct. 1st.

MR. G. R. GILL handed our Washington correspondent this week a letter from Dr. E. O. Guerrant, written from Canoe, Breathitt County, up in the mountains, where the doctor is carrying on a meeting under a tent, as there is no church in the county. Fifty people had joined the day before. The work is termed the "America Inland Mission," and is one deserving the assistance of all Christian people, it being directed to the mountain people of Tennessee, Kentucky and North Carolina, "about a million of whom," it is claimed, "are without the gospel or the means of getting it."

Cold Steel or Death.

"There is but one small chance to save your life and that is through an operation," was the awful prospect set before Mrs. I. B. Hunt, of Lime Ridge, Wis., by her doctor after vainly trying to cure her of a frightful case of stomach trouble and yellow jaundice. He didn't count on the marvelous power of Electric Bitters to cure stomach and liver troubles, but she heard of it, took seven bottles, was wholly cured, avoided surgeon's knife, now weighs more and feels better than ever. It's positively guaranteed to cure stomach, liver and kidney troubles and never disappoints. Price 50c., at J. Jas. Wood & Son's drug store.

BIG CROWD OUT.

Mason County Fair Opens Under Most Favorable Auspices.

Dr. Carver's Wonderful Shooting—The Diving Elks and Horses and the Guideless Racers All Great Attractions.

The Mason County fair opened Wednesday under the most favorable auspices—barring the torrid weather. But the breezes from the river make the grounds and grand stand about as cool a place as you'll find hereabouts.

The crowd in attendance was estimated to be the largest ever present on opening day, and the prospects are the fair will be a record-breaker.

The display in the floral hall is one of the most beautiful and attractive ever exhibited at a local fair. This is especially true of the fancy needle work and the paintings.

The exhibition in the poultry department far surpasses anything of the kind ever seen at a Maysville fair. There are fine specimens of chickens of most every breed, and then there are turkeys, ducks, geese, guineas and peafowls. Among the exhibitors in this department are such well known breeders as Mr. W. E. Piles, Mr. Frank Herbert and Mr. Tillett. In all, there are probably nearly 100 coops of poultry on exhibition.

In the arena the directors for the day were 'Squire Luttrell, 'Squire Perrine and Messrs. W. R. Gill, Charles Stroud and Charles Rhodes. There was a good exhibition of Jacks, Jennets, draft, saddle and harness horses. Following is a list of the premiums awarded:

Best Jack, any age, $10; W. H. Hord, Orangeburg.
Best Jennett, any age, $10; W. H. Hord, Orangeburg.
Best draft team, $10; E. L. Martin, Jr., Brown County, O.
Best draft stallion, $10; Burgess & Pickett, Mason County.
Best draft gelding, $10; E. L. Martin, Jr., Brown County.
Best draft mare, $10; Geo. Knoweshaw, Mason County.
Best draft colt, any sex, $8; Geo. Knoweshaw, Mason County.

Best saddle mare, 4 years and over, $10; C. E. Biggers, city.
Best saddle mare, 3 years and under 4, $10; E. D. Perkins, Minerva.

Best saddle mare, 2 years and under 3, $10; Everett Poe, Augusta.
Best harness and roadster gelding, 4 years and over, $10; C. E. Biggers.
Best harness and roadster gelding, 3 years and under 4, $10; J. R. Fagan, Bracken.

Best harness and roadster gelding, 2 years and under 3, $10; Everett Poe, Augusta.

In the road race for horses owned in Mason and adjoining counties, mile heats, best two in three, six started, Harris Alexander's black gelding Prince, L. T. Hendrickson's black stallion Neddie Connor, J. R. Fagan's bay mare, Jos. Caldwell's bay gelding Dan, Wesley Vicroy's sorrel gelding and Jeff Hazelrigg's bay mare. Summary:

Prince	2	2
Neddie Connor	1	1
Fagan's	3	3
Dan	4	4
Vicroy's	6	"
Hazelrigg's	5	"

Time 2:30, 2:26 1/2; $25 to first horse, $10 to second.

Stroud Bros.' bay mare won the half mile running race over Stout's bay gelding. Time 54 1/2. Purse $25; second horse $10.

The special attractions—the diving horses, elks and bicycle rider and Dr. Carver's wonderful shooting, are all that has been claimed for them. Dr. Carver met with an accident July 4th, and yesterday was the first shooting he has done since then. His skill as a marksman is wonderful. With rifle or shot-gun he breaks wooden balls, glass balls, oranges, apples, brick bats and any other old thing as fast almost as they can be thrown in the air. In the diving feats his animals and the cyclist plunge from a forty-foot tower into a pool, and animals and man seem to enjoy it. His guideless pacers gave as fine an exhibition of racing as has ever been seen on the ground. These attractions are alone worth the price of admission.

In addition to these and other attractions, the Maysville Gun Club gives a live bird shoot this afternoon.

Following is a list of the premiums in the floral hall:

San bonnet, Mrs. McAtee Case, $1.
Footmat of rugs, A. Froman, $2.
Fancy knit wool hose, Miss Lizzie Hamilton, $1.
Fancy knit wool hose, Miss Lizzie Hamilton, $1.
Silk comfort, Mrs. Patti Russell, $3.
Worsted comfort, Mrs. Russell White, $2.50.
Worsted quilt, Mrs. R. H. Talbott, $2.
Calico quilt, Miss Wiglesworth, $1.
Patch work quilt, silk, Mrs. John Ballenger, $3.

DRAMATIC INCIDENT OF THE TRIAL.

Prewitt Denied His Accusation of "Tallow Dick" Coombs—Golden Denied Statements Made by Prewitt.

Georgetown, Ky., Aug. 8.—When the Powers murder trial was resumed Dr. Prewitt of Taylor county continued his testimony. On cross-examination he denied that he told Wharton Golden he had no doubt that "Tallow Dick" Coombs fired the shot that killed Goebel and denied that he said Coombs came into the adjutant general's office after the shooting. He repeated that Coombs and Hockersmith were in the office at the time and that neither of them could have done the shooting. Witness also said he had seen Golden a day or two ago and denounced him as a liar. As the witness left the stand Golden was recalled and he and Prewitt met face to face. The spectators in the court room watched closely to see how they greeted each other. They spoke cordially and Golden took the stand and denied that he had made certain statements which Prewitt claimed he had made and also repeated what he claimed Prewitt told him in regard to "Tallow Dick" Coombs in connection with the shooting.

Dr. Prewitt was again recalled and said that he was with Wharton Golden when the latter was first informed by Tom Cromwell that he might be arrested in connection with the assassin. Prewitt said Golden told him a few minutes later that they were arranging to put the crime on Powers but that the latter was innocent.

George W. Long, state treasurer during Bradley's regime, testified about going to Louisville the morning of January 30 with Caleb Powers and others to arrange to bring some friends from western Kentucky to be present when the contest was argued the latter part of the week.

He said the news of the shooting caused them to abandon the project. On cross-examination the prosecution introduced a letter which they asked Long to identify, but he said it had not been written by him or signed by him. The witness said he thought it had been written by his son Wendell Long, but he had not authorized it.

PIRITY POLITICAL POINTS.

(By Robert Taylor.)

Taylor isn't any more anxious to stay in Indiana than his party is to have him stay.

The failure of the Republicans to put Taylor up as a candidate for Governor emphasized their opinion of him and his methods.

With his own party arrayed against him, as was plainly shown by them not nominating him for Governor, it's small wonder that Taylor remains in Indiana.

There could be but one reason why the Republicans took up another man in preference to Taylor after proclaiming the latter's election in every possible way, and that is that they recognized his responsibility for the lawlessness at Frankfort and for the consequent damage to their cause.

Don't Be Blind To Facts You Should Know

The Testing of the Eyes by a competent Optician is not a matter of guess work, nor is it a matter of trying on glasses promiscuously, but it is a science governed by principles which none but a person who has studied the science of Optics can understand. We have, with years of experience and close application to properly fitting of glasses to the sight, acquired the knowledge of knowing how, a fact which certainly gives us a great advantage.

Come and let us examine your eyes and we will advise you regarding the true condition of them.
